EVANGELISM OUTREACH AT SCOTT ARMS

Members from Perry Beeches Baptist Church met on Saturday 16th December outside Acorns Children's Hospice charity shop to evangelise to the local community. Over 100 packs were given out, which included information about the church, the meaning of Christmas and the fruits of the spirit.

The carol singing was posted on the Great Barr page and got 129 likes with some good comments.

We would like to thank Acorns for their support and putting a video of our carol singing on their Facebook page. We would also like to thank Greggs for providing us with free drinks.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CHRISTMAS PARTY

On Saturday 16th December the Sunday School held their Christmas party. There was food, music, pass the parcel and much more. All the children thoroughly enjoyed the party.

Thanks to everyone who helped to make the party such a success.

CAROL SERVICE

On Christmas Eve, Sunday 24th December, the Church held their Carol Service, which included hymns about Christmas and bible readings. The children and youth fellowship groups got together to perform the much-loved nativity play for the concert service. Some of the teachers also took on some acting roles too, becoming angels and shepherds.

A great time was had by all, and the audience seemed to like the performance. They were able to get involved too, joining in with the traditional songs.

Thank you to everyone who took part in the Carol Service, including the children and young people, digital team, musicians and Sunday School teachers who put everything together.
